

31st International Leadership Workshop for Rural Youth

09th -23rd August 2023 – Herrsching, Germany

New Impulses for Rural Youth –

Think globally – Get together and act locally!

Are you a youth between 21 – 45 years? A manager or multiplier holding a position of responsibility in the field of youth work or vocational training in a rural area?

Here is your chance to be part of the 31st International Leadership Workshop for Rural Youth. The International Leadership Workshop for Rural Youth is held annually since 1962 and is organized by the German Federal Ministry of Food and Agriculture (BMEL).

The workshop opens new perspectives in rural youth work and strengthens leadership skills by learning implementation strategies and developing a personal action plan. Further, it inspires participants to take on responsibility for the sustainable development in their region.

The event will be held in Herrsching on Lake Ammersee at the House of Bavarian Agriculture, the association's educational facility. Participants must be fluent in one of the three conference languages German, English, French. The workshop is not a spectator activity hence it is required to take part in every activity throughout the entire workshop.

The costs of accommodation, meals, working aids and excursions included in the program are paid by the organizer. Travel costs to and from the workshop inclusive Visa fees and administrative charges must be paid by the participants themselves or by their organizations/ employers.

Note:

There is only one opportunity to take part in the International Leadership Workshop for Rural Youth.
